

EAGLE WEEKS

JULY 16 – 22, 2023

JULY 23 – 29, 2023

JULY 30 – AUGUST 5, 2023

CAMP SEQUASSEN

Dear Scout:

Welcome to Eagle Week! Your unit leaders recommend you be admitted to Eagle Week because they believe you have the potential to be an Eagle Scout. We hope to help you develop this potential during your visit with us.

It's going to be a very busy week for all of us. Just working on merit badges alone is enough to keep a person busy but you will also plan and perform a service project, participate in after hours seminars, and if you still have time, participate in some activities just for FUN!

I am sure you realize earning the Eagle Badge is not one of the outcomes of this week. Rather, our goal is to help you advance towards your goal of achieving Eagle Scout by working on merit badges and by preparing you to complete the final requirement for the award.

Read this brochure carefully. If you have any questions, please call the Camp Registrar, Karen Caiati, at 203-951-0234.

The staff and I look forward to seeing you at camp.

Yours in Scouting,

Mike Migliore
Camp Director

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Camp opens at 12:30-1:00 pm on Sunday, July 16, July 23 and July 30. A staff member will greet you at the parking lot and direct you to Alderman Administration Center for check in.

As part of check in, you will visit five areas:

1. In-process at Alderman Center - check in, payment of fees, photos, etc.
2. Scouts with medications must turn in their medications at the Health Lodge.
3. Your campsite
4. Waterfront - orientations & swim test.
5. Dining Hall- orientation.

(NOTE: parents must stay for the first two steps of check in).

Parents are invited and encouraged to attend the closing brunch on Saturday morning at 9:30 am. The cost is $10 for adults and $6 for children 6-12 years old (no charge for 5 and younger).

What you might need money for:

- Snacks and souvenirs at our Trading Post
- Merit Badge books (though you may bring them with you)
- Patrol photograph - $15

Carefully read the requirements of the merit badges you will be taking. If the requirement calls for a report, you will have to write that report. You may do it at home and bring it with you, or you may do it at camp. The more requirements you complete at home the greater the number of badges you can earn at camp.

EXPECTATIONS

What should you expect from your Eagle week program?

- To earn up to four (4) merit badges.
- To work just as hard for each merit badge as you would if they were offered elsewhere.
- To plan and participate in a service project designed by you and all your fellow Eagle week participants.
- To make new friends from all around the Council area.
- To share your thoughts and ideas with others who aspire to be Eagle Scouts.
- To get helpful hints on how to plan and execute your Eagle Scout service project.
- To have FUN!
